

ROLE PROFILE

CHAMPION VOLUNTEER

As a Helen & Douglas Champion, you will be an ambassador for the charity, meeting supporters and representing Helen & Douglas House at supporter events and occasions we're invited to attend in the community.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- As a Helen & Douglas House Champion, you will exude our core values and build positive relationships with individuals, groups, schools and businesses
- Tasks include cheque presentations, attending events, making short thank you speeches and giving presentations. You can choose what you prefer to do

TIME COMMITMENT

- Opportunities occur throughout the week, including daytime, evenings and weekends. We would appreciate your support for a few hours per month, flexible to suit you

EXPERIENCE & TRAINING

- Experience of speaking at events is desirable, but not required. Speaker training can be provided if needed and you will be given all the information and materials needed to give talks
- Ability to use a computer/laptop and familiarity with programmes such as Microsoft Power-Points/ Teams, are advantageous but not compulsory for the role

QUALITIES AND REQUIREMENTS

- Flexibility and adaptability, using your initiative when volunteering on your own
- Excellent communication and listening skills
- Reliable and trustworthy
- Confident when speaking to people at events
- Access to car/public transport

BENEFITS

- A huge sense of satisfaction in knowing you are helping others and making a difference
- Meeting a variety of new people
- Developing skills and gaining new experiences
- Volunteers may claim reasonable travel expenses to and from venues, in line with the organisation's expense policy